UPCHURCH GETS EXHIBIT READY FOR FAIR MEET

HARD COMPETITION SEEN FOR THIS YEAR AT FAIR.

New Departments of Competition Interests Farmers of County In the Tri-State Fair.

Randall county, for a number of years famed for her agricultural exhibits is preparing to go to the Tri-State Fair, well equipped to take honors in other divisions of the Panhandle's leading fall exposition. From the dairy herds, which have made this county an outstanding dairying center in West Texas, are being selected the cream of Jerseys for a county herd exhibit at Amarillo, September 21 and 26

Prepared by County Agent W. H. Upchurch, agricultural exhibits from Randall county have won first place for the past three years. Last year the exhibit was carried to the State Fair of Texas and won first place there, giving recognition to Randall county as being the banner agricultural county of Texas.

In the years past, the bulk of prizes in the Boys' Club Grain Show of the Tri-State Fair have gone to Randall county boys. The Hereford cattle of this county, among the best in the entire Panhandle, have claimed a large number of prizes and ribbons, during the years gone by. The Tri-State Fair has always been helped by Randall county.

The announcement that for the first time a county herd of Jerseys would be shown at Amarillo indicates that the county has just now reached the stage with dairy cows where it is able to make a very creditable showing. Cows from five herds must be used in the county exhibit. These must be pure breds. The county herd will consist of eight head.

A brief review of the rapid strides made with dairy cattle in this county, which has helped to give Randall a well balanced farm program and expand over its agricultural resources, will reveal amazing advancement.

Beginning a few years ago when good blooded milk cows and sires were scarce in the Panhandle, a breeding program was started by a number of farmers who saw a more stable income from dairy cows than wheat farming. The most outstanding example of that today is a herd of 35 splendid grade cows which holds several state records. This herd is sired by a Gold Medal Jersey Bull. This county was among the first in the Panhandle to start bull circles and the results of such are in evidence in every section of the county. Randall county also has a large number of Register of Merit Jersey cows.

The first state record in butterfat production ever won by a Jersey cow west of Fort Worth was won by a Randall county cow.

During the past three years Randall county cows have been winning their share of honors at the

Canyon Eagles Are Training Daily for Opening of Football

High school football under the direction of Coaches Edgar Brady and Gordon Thompson began its activities Monday. Between 30 and 40 boys are reporting daily for practice and several others have sent word that they will be on duty soon. Coach Brady reports that the Eagle material looks good and the boys are hustling to win a place on the first team.

The Eagles' prospects at the present time are rather bright for a successful season. Most of the letter men of last season's team are back for this fall's season, while several capable boys have joined the squad.

The first game of the season will be played with Panhandle high under the flood lights of Buffalo field on the night of Sept. 19. The Panhandle Panthers are one of the strongest Class B teams in the conference, and are expected to be serious contesders for district honors. The Panthers will have the same team playing this season that went into the finals for the district championship last season. This game should be one of the best of the season.

LARGEST SESSION SUMMER SCHOOL ENDS YESTERDAY

TOTAL ATTENDANCE 1481 REPORTED AT COLLEGE.

Paving, Auditorium Improvements, and Other Changes in College Plant During Vacation.

"It was the biggest and best summer session in the 21 years history of the College," stated Dr. J. A. Hill yesterday, referring to the close of the session of the West Texas State Teachers College. "There were enrolled in the College a total of 1231, and 250 in the training school, making the total for the summer of 1481. Unless conditions are much worse next summer I predict that next summer's session will be larger than this one, continued Dr. Hill. Throughout the summer, faculty members have highly praised the great interest taken by students in the work this summer and the hard work being done in all departments.

Dr. Hill attended a meeting of the Board of Regents at Alpine last week, and reports a most harmonious session. Various plans were discussed relating the permanent improvements to be made on the College plant. Much of the work will be done during the coming month when the vacation period is on.

Considerable improvements will be made on the auditorium, including a new curtain. $4,724 is avtailable for repairs on the administration building.

Plans are being made to install a new boiler, allowed in the recent appropriations bill. The appropriation for this is $7,500.00.

Paving contractors are figuring on the $6,000 paving job around the administration building.

Knob Knockers Are Here Friday Night Work on Two Safes

The safe at the Consumers Fuel Company was robbed Friday night, the knob being knocked off in spite of the fact that Manager Worth A. Jennings had a large sign over the safe worded, "No Cash in this Safe." The only money found by the robbers was between $5 and $6 in change.

Night Watchman Chas. Stratton heard a noise in the office of the Sternenberg Lumber Co. about 3 o'clock Saturday morning and on investigation saw two men working on the safe. They made a break and escaped over the back fence, leaving a sledge hammer, 2 punches and a flashlight. The knob of this safe had been knocked off. The men had worked with gloves, leaving no finger prints.

Panhandle Gathering for Goodnight Ranch

Invitations are being sent out for the all-Panhandle celebration at the Goodnight ranch on Monday, Sept. 7th. At that time plans will be made to start a movement to buy the Goodnight ranch for the purpose of starting a game reserve. The special session of the legislature authorized the Game, Fish and Oyster department to buy the buffalo herd at such time that a suitable tract of land was donated to the state. It is believed that if the money is secured to buy the ranch that it will be the beginning of a large Palo Duro Park.

Fred L. Haskett of Wichita Falls, cooperating with the Amarillo Board of City Development is inviting state officials and others to visit the Goodnight ranch in the Palo Duro for a barbecue on Sept. 7th.

DECREASE MADE IN COUNTY TAX RATE FOR YEAR

TOTAL RATE FOR YEAR IN RANDALL COUNTY $1.18.

Small Changes Made for Different Funds—State Rate Not Set, and Will Hold Making Rolls.

The county tax rate was reduced wo cents on the $100.00 valuation by the commissioners court last week. The new tax rate is $1.18 for all purposes, as compared with 1.20 last year.

The division of the tax budget was set as follows:

General fund, 25 cents on the 100 valuation.

Court house and jail maintenance, 17 cents.

Court house and jail sinking, 6 ents.

Jury fund, 14½ cents.

Road and bridge general, 15 ents.

Road and bridge special, 14 ents.

For the $50,000 road bond issue, cents.

For the $250,000 paving bond issue, 20 cents.

Practically all of the school district rates remain as for the past year.

The state automatic tax board has not set the state tax rate. The Board is composed of the Governor, Treasurer and Comptroller. It is reported that the Governor is opposed to increasing the state rate, but a large deficit exists in the treasury at the present time, and it is estimated that the deficit will greatly increase unless the constitutional limit is reached on the rate. The county tax rolls are supposed to be completed by October 1st, but this will be impossible unless the state rate is fixed this week. It should have been set in July.

Laborers to Give 10% of Wages to Museum Building

The weekly meeting of the laboring crafts of Canyon was held Monday night at the court house with sixty men in attendance. It was unanimously voted that all crafts engaged in building the new museum building, Pioneer Hall, will donate 10 per cent of their wage to the building if a proper wage scale is maintained on the building. It is not yet known just how the building will be handled, whether through local labor or through a state contract.

The labor organization was formed last week for the purpose of securing as much labor as possible for the local men. All citizens and organizations are asked to use local labor whenever possible.

Sheriff Fry Stages Big Liquor Party

Liquor flowed freely at a booze party given Monday morning by Sheriff John Fry.

However, it was a strict prohibitionist party, attended by the Sheriff, E. Burroughs, J. W. Shook and A. H. Hunt. The party was authorized Saturday by District Judge Henry S. Bishop, and was therefore in strict accordance with the laws of the state. Upon authority of the court, the Sheriff destroyed 88 pints of whiskey, 2 quarts, 1 gallon, one ten gallon keg, 270 bottle of beer and a still. The three witnesses signed the affidavit that they saw the liquor poured into the sewer.

The liquor destroyed was home brew taken in different raids made by the sheriff since the last term of court.

John Arnott is president, R. E. Baird is vice president and Miss Laura Hamner is secretary of the organization.

Mrs. C. Eakman of Amarillo visited last week at the home of her daughter, Mrs. H. A. Brown.

Canyon Golf Team Takes 8-4 Games From Lockney Sun.

The Canyon golf team took eight of the twelve matches from the Lockney team Sunday which was played at Lockney. This was the only game scheduled in the Wheat Belt league. Canyon strengthened its position of number two in the conference, with Plainview leading by a safe margin.

Plainview will play here next Sunday. Canyon players expect to take the game, but according to the percentage sheet, Plainview would have to lose another of its three games if Canyon should nose out the South Plains town for the conference honors.

The Canyon team Sunday was composed of Weatherly, Sone, Gamewell, Reeves, Bryant, Foster, W. Savage, Craig, Hartman, Duflot, Walsh and F. Hicks. Those losing Sunday were Gamewell, Reeves, Hartman and Foster. This was the first game that Lee Foster has lost since the tournament started.

CANYON SCHOOL OPENS MONDAY SEPTEMBER 7th

SUPT CARRUTH MAKES STATEMENT ABOUT THE WORK.

Faculty Will Be Strongest of School's History—Additional Units Given on Work.

The Canyon schools will open on Monday, Sept. 7th, according to Supt. Irby Carruth. The following statement was made yesterday by Mr. Carruth:

Enrollment in the Public Schools will begin on Monday, September 7, at 8:45 a. m. The pupils in the elementary school will begin activities at 8:45 and will have a regular day of school work. The pupils of the high school will report for enrollment only. The eighth and ninth grade pupils will report for enrollment from 8:45 to 12 o'clock on Monday while the pupils of the junior and senior classes will enroll from 1 to 3 o'clock in the afternoon.

All pupils who anticipate entering the high school are urged to discuss their prospective courses with their parents before registering. This will prevent the delay and confusion caused by changing courses after the school work has begun. Such a precaution is very important for freshmen and sophomores.

The usual fees will be charged in both manual training and the laboratory sciences. Every effort however, will be made to curtail the expenses caused by supplementary material in all of the courses of the school.

The patrons of the school are urged to call the office of the superintendent or the principal of the elementary school for any information that they might desire regarding the enrollment of their children. The parents are cordially invited to come to the school at any time for conferences concerning the welfare of the pupils.

Preparations are being made for the increased enrollment that is expected in the public schools. Two additional classrooms have been provided for the high school and the elementary school is making provision to adequately care for all of the pupils that enroll.

It is felt that the school will, in many ways, have one of the strongest faculties in its history. Practically the same group of teachers that taught in the school last season; three of which will have their master's degree. About fifty per cent of the faculty has been in school during the summer months while several have spent the summer in travel.

The school will begin its new session with additional recognition from the state department. During the last term four additional courses were affiliated with the state department, and a very favorable report received from the state inspector commending the quality of work done in the school as a whole.

Highway Paving as Soon as City Work Has Been Finished

Judge S. B. Orton states that the highways south and west will be paved for about eight miles in each direction as soon as the city can finish up its part of the agreement to widen the streets on highway No. 9, running north and south, and do the part of the work according to the agreement reached several months ago. The state highway commission at first asked that the county do all the paving south to Happy and leave the highway west for a later date. According to the pledge made to the voters at the time the bonds were voted, the money would be spent equally on the two highways after the paving had been completed between Canyon and Amarillo. The state officials have finally agreed to this arrangement.

Judge Orton stated that officials are studying with interest the new ype of paving north of the city which was used to close the 1300 foot gap. The engineers hoping that it will prove successful, as the cost is so much less that the mileage of paving would be very much increased if this was found practicable. State engineers are making a minute study of the paving north of the city to see if they can discover the cause of the cracks which have come in this paving. It is stated that this paving has caused much concern among the engineers as it has cracked worse than any stretch of paving in the Panhandle.

Rev. and Mrs. W. C. Kunze have gone to Houston and Madisonville for a month's vacation trip.

MEMBER TEXAS PRESS ASSOCIATION

Harry B. Adams took two columns of his Lockney Beacon last week in cussing the legislature and the bills which were introduced, especially those regulating cotton and other measures to regulate business and industry. Mr. Adams should serve a term in the legislature, and he would find out that this is a day of regulation. Every line of business wishes the state to do something for them. The doctor and other professions have been regulated for many years. They found it profitable to themselves and beneficial to the public in many ways. Other lines wish to enter into the same protection. There is hardly a business in Texas today which does not seem to have established a board or bureau at Austin to regulate its members. The people of the state would certainly revolt if all regulations and restrictions were removed from their banks, insurance companies, the corporations, the oil industries, the railroads, truck and bus lines, and other lines of state activities. There are scores of other lines of activities which seek to have the same protection for the public and the ligitimate operators in these businesses or professions. The people demand these, in most instances, and the man 500 miles from Austin has no idea as to the pressure brought to bear to pass these measures, and more often he does not comprehend the significance of the bills under discussion. Cussing the legislature is an old Roman custom. Those who get any fun out of it are doing no harm, and may relieve their feelings to some extent. On with the battle, according to the battle cry of the famous old prohibition spokesman.

The daily press of Friday and Saturday carried banners regarding the 200 new laws which went into effect on the 22nd. A major part of these laws were local in nature, and did not affect many people. The citizens of the state have a great deal to say in the way of criticism of all new laws, especially in times like these. They should keep in mind that all of these laws are introduced and passed at the request of some part of the state, some organization, or community. Laws do not just happen. They are not introduced by members just to have something to do. Every member of the legislature realizes that there are probably too many unenforceable laws already. But when the constitutients of any member demand that some kind of a law be passed to correct an existing or imaginary evil, a bill of that subject is certain to be introduced, and will likely be passed if not too radical in nature. Laws are passed because the people demand them, and for no other reason.

Big business is having plenty of troubles just now. Sometimes we get it in our heads that the big business man is freed from all troubles, and that his path is strewn with nothing but roses. This is far from the truth. The bigger the business the more complex is the problems connected therewith. Just now the utilities companies are under a barrage. Perhaps some of them are subject to criticism. Some of them have betrayed the confidence of the public, and have been exhorbitant in their charges to customers. The public wishes to be fair, and will be fair if the facts are known. Those utilities which are being criticised should take the public into their confidence and tell them their troubles, and something about their rates, cost of operation and net profits. The public should further take into consideration that good service under all conditions is expensive to the utilities and very convenient to the public. Poor service is something worse than no service at all.

What to do with cotton seems to be as big a question now at Austin these days as was the question of what to do with oil two weeks back. Governor Sterling has called upon the leaders of the state to advise as to a cotton session of the legislature. He seems pretty well pleased at the result of the oil session. However, if the cotton session, if held, will have a much bigger problem. There are more than half a million farms in Texas, a large part of which are directly interested in cotton. It took the national guard to cover a three-county oil field in East Texas. Just what kind of a state police force would be required to handle a drastic order as to the limiting of cotton acreage. The further fact that the legislature has twice killed the cotton acreage bill means that there will be bitter opposition, lead by the actual farmers in the law making body. Governor Sterling is expected to make some decision soon as regards the necessity of another called session of the legislature.

Those who live in the Panhandle should rejoice that they are so fortunate. What is going to happen to the cotton raising section of Texas, which is too large a part of the state, is a question which is troubling all of our citizens. There are thousands of farmers who raise nothing except cotton. With a price of 5 cents per pound or less, it means bankruptcy and suffering for thousands of people this winter. Practically all Panhandle farmers raise food stuff enough to carry them through the winter; most of them have piled up some wheat which they can consume; nearly all have gardens, poultry and stock. The tenant farmers of Texas have nothing but cotton, which they cannot use and which costs more to raise than they will get for it. Panhandle folks who are discouraged should see what is happening in other sections of the state.

The barbecue at the Goodnight Ranch on September 7th will bring to this section a large number of state officials, and will band together many of the old timers of the Panhandle. The event will be largely of the same nature as the meeting of the T-Anchor boys being held today at the Wragge Park north of Canyon, and the annual gathering of the Panhandle-Plains Historical Society in Canyon every spring. Those who are fortunate enough to be invited to this gathering will see the pioneers of the Panhandle assembled very largely for the purpose of paying tribute to that grand old pioneer and frontier builder, Col. Charles C. Goodnight.

The Texas senate will likely start the impeachment trial of Judge J. B. Price early in September. He was indicted by the House of Representatives last Wednesday by a large vote. No matter what disposition is made by the Senate, the state has saved millions of dollars in fees. The sheriffs and clerks have been taking advantage of the blanket provision of the law regarding fees and have virtually stolen from the state millions of dollars. In one county 37 indictments were returned against one negro. The sheriff made one trip to arrest this one man, returning a fee bill of 37 trips to the amount of $16,000. The fee system must be repealed before such abuses will be corrected.

A number of counties are making the mistake of dispensing with the services of their county agents and home demonstration agents under the guise of economy. These agents are needed worse in times like these than when everything is on the boom. Randall county has profited from the continuous services of a county agent to such an extent that the meager salary may be said to be paid many, many years in advance.

Oil prices in East Texas are advancing. No matter what the cause is, whether from the effect of recent legislation, or from the decree of martial law, the result is very gratifying to the state. The workability of the new law will soon be tested out. In the meanwhile, the state troops have all wells closed, and the price of oil is advancing. After all is said, Governor Bill Murray seems to have pointed the way for the solution of a real knotty problem. The criticism directed toward Governor Sterling in calling the troops to the East Texas field has largely subsided considering the fact that a genuine benefit is very apparent.

PHILLIPS PLANS AGGIE TRIP TO EUROPE 1933

A large group of Agriculture students from the Panhandle of Texas will go to Europe in 1933 if the plans of Professor Frank R. Phillips, head of the Agriculture department of the West Texas State Teachers College are carried out.

Phillips is organizing a club of men who have had some college courses in agriculture and who are interested in farm problems, and a trip which will cost as little as $500 is contemplated. The party will go by auto to New York City, acquainting themselves with agricultural conditions across two thirds of the United States as they go.

A Territorial Policy in Keeping With The Times!

Realizing the need for conservation and economy on the part of municipalities which it serves the Texas Utilities Company has instituted a revised schedule of costs of service for light and power delivered to such municipalities as a part of its obligation to the communities and desiring to be of help in meeting the present day problems.

The following resolution adopted by the City Council of the City of Portales, New Mexico, will indicate the attitude of The Texas Utilities Company and the appreciation of that community.

Resolution

WHEREAS, the New Mexico Utilities Company purchased the municipal electric plant at Portales, New Mexico, in 1925 and were given a fifty-year franchise, with a 20-year power and lighting contract.

The lighting rate in effect at the time of purchase was one hundred per cent higher than it is at the present time, and they have practically rebuilt the entire distributing system of the City, making it a part of a vast inter-connected system, thus assuring our City of dependable and unlimited power.

We have found in our dealings with the New Mexico Utilities Company, those high ideals of clean business and square dealings that have caused us to realize their value in the proper development of our City and County.

The New Mexico Utilities Company have made various reductions in their rates, and always of their own free will and accord.

We have never had an occasion to register a complaint against the Company of any kind, either in the way of Service or of management, their managers and employees, we have found to be upright and honorable citizens, working for the welfare and development not only of their Company's interest but also for our City and State, therefore it is a pleasure to have the Company here in our City as one of our going institutions, that serves the public, and serves well, and we are glad to express our appreciation of the New Mexico Utilities Company and Judge I. R. Kelso, President of the Company, for the fine service rendered by them, and pledge our co-operation in the ongoing of their splendid program.

WHEREAS, I. R. Kelso, Pesident of Texas Utilities Company and President of New Mexico Utilties Company, has announced the policy of co-operation with the various towns on the inter-connected electric network of New Mexico Utilities Company and Texas Utilities Company lines in the matter of working out emergency relief measures to help take care of financial problems now confronting many towns served by these companies, through no fault of the territory served; the policy in regard to emergency relief has been adopted by Texas Utilities Company and New Mexico ico Utilities Company, because, many towns on their lines are suffering temporarily not withstanding the wonderful crops being produced in this territory, solely because of a world-wide depression for which the territory served is in no way responsible.

WHEREAS, on this date said New Mexico Utilities Company through Hon. I. R. Kelso and other representatives of said Company, has made known to the governing body and citizens of Portales its decision, as a voluntary action on its part, and as a donation to said City and taxpayers, effective as of August 1st, 1931, and for a period of one year thereafter, to reduce the cost of the street lighting in said City to one-half the cost prevailing on and prior to said date, and has further taken voluntary action reducing the rate for its service to our schools, whih is a reduction of approximately 75% over the 1929 charges; and,

WHEREAS, said New Mexico Utilities Company has further, this date, agreed with the governing body and citizens of Portales, as a separate and distinct matter, and in no way connected with said street lighting, to reduce the cost of the City of pumping the City's water supply, so that the pumping rate shall be and is hereafter fixed at two cents (2c) per kilowatt hour, but with the proviso and understanding that in the event the Legislature of New Mexico, or any other lawful taxing power of authority shall impose any tax on or affectng said service, increasing the cost of furnishing same, such tax shall be added to and become a part of said rate and paid by said City; and,

WHEREAS, the action of said New Mexico Utilities Company in the matters aforesaid effects a great saving financially to our city, schools, and taxpayers, the saving in street lighting amounting to $1175.12 as based on 1930 consumption, being $741.61, year, and the saving in water pumping, and the saving of the schools, based on 1930 consumption, being $269.84, and city hall lighting $55.20, all aggregating $2,241.47, and in addition thereto said New Mexico Utilities Company is one of our largest taxpayers, its current taxes to our city, school, county and state, Roosevelt County being $2,571.46; and, this is the tenth substantial reduction made by said Company within the past six years; and,

WHEREAS, said New Mexico Utilities Company has heretofore from time to time reduced its rates in the City of Portales, each and every such reduction having been made voluntarily by said Company; and,

WHEREAS, the aforesaid action by said Company is fully appreciated by the City of Portales and the citizens thereof, and is convincing to all of said Company's generous spirit of helpfulness to the community at the lowest possible cost to do its full part freely and voluntarily to lessen the financial burden of its patrons, and at considerable financial loss, during the time of financial and industrial depression; and,

WHEREAS, we wish to say that in our opinion if all the Utilities serving the people of the State of New Mexico, maintained the same generous and helpful attitude towards the communities served by them as has always been maintained by the New Mexico Utilities Company, there would be no demand or need for any kind of State regulation and we wish to express to the public and to said New Mexico Utilities Company and to its President, Judge I. R. Kelso, and to its other officials and representatives our appreciation for its generous attitude and spirit of helpfulness; therefore,

BE IT RESOLVED, by the City of Portales acting by and through its governing body and Committee of Citizens, in meeting this day held at the City Hall in the City of Portales, that we do hereby express to the said New Mexico Utilities Company, and to Hon. THE HIGH SCHOOL'S FIELD.

Criticisms with which the American educational system is deluged ordinarily are too vague to furnish a basis for constructive action. Recognizing this fact, Thomas Henry Briggs, dean of the Teachers' College, Columbia University, has met an insistant demand for concrete proposals by suggesting a national conference of educators to recommend desirable changes in the high school curriculum.

High schools, Dean Briggs asserts, serve but an insignificant fraction of the pupils attending them. The curriculum, in his view, is antiquated and unsuited to present-day needs. Consequently the great majority of the pupils waste time and at the end of their courses are poorly prepared for their life work.

Illustrating his views, Dean Briggs proposes that foreign languages and algebra be eliminated from high school courses. He would stress English, civics, history and manual training. He believes that most educators agree with him in favoring these changes. At any rate, he thinks a committee of educators should be appointed to study the matter in a concrete way and make known its conclusions.

Here, at last, is a definite proposal. The colleges are undergoing reorganization and adopting new plans to encourage the earnest minority of students. This change will most certainly impose upon the high school the duty of more adequately playing its role in the preparation of youth. The question of what shall be done to modernize the high school is one to which educators should assiduously seek and answer.—Ft. Worth Star-Telegram.

When you want a thing and haven't got it, the obvious thing is to go out and get it. It will not come to you.

If some people would pay more attention to the middle they would not have so much trouble in making ends meet.

The best thing a father can leave a son is the pleasure of earning a living. Too many sons think the pleasure is all father's.

We can safely call it improvement when folks begin mortgaging the automobile to buy a home.

MORE FARMERS HAVE ROADSIDE MARKETS

Several years ago after a visit to the Rio Grande Valley, we called attention to the fact that there were no roadside markets in that section where travelers could purchase citrus fruits and other products of that section. Because of a lack of places where the products could attract the attention of travelers, a big market was missed.

We are happy to state that conditions have changed very materially and that there are now many roadside stands where travelers can buy the various products of that section. The idea has extended for a considerable distance this side of the Valley and the opportunities provided travelers is producing good results.

In our February, 1931, issue we called attention to the endorsement of Roadside Markets by the U. S. Department of Commerce, and we think it is advisable to repeat what the Department said on the subject, as follows:

"Neat and attractive roadside stands that handle fresh local products of good quality may display signs issued on one-year lease terms of the Massachusetts Department of Agriculture, according to a recent statement in The American City. The signs evidencing State approval are subject to withdrawal without notice if the terms of the lease are broken by the lessee.

"At least two of the products sold regularly at the stand bearing the label must be qualified to bear the New England quality products label. Products sold are requiring to be from the farm of the stand owner or from neighboring farms, no stand handling products bought in the city and trucked out being eligible to display the sign."

In this connection, we wish to call the attention of our people in the Winter Garden district especially to this matter.

Several months ago, while the onions and strawberries were marketed in that District we made a trip to several market towns in that section.

While strawberries, and especially Bermuda onions were a drug on the market, we traveled thru all the country from Dilley to Carrizo Springs, Crystal City and Catarina, and not a single place did we find where a traveler could buy a crate of strawberries or onions. We wanted some of them to bring home. Hundreds of other travelers wanted the same, but not one single sign did we see that said Strawberries or Onions could be purchased. We did not have a chance to buy any strawberries at all, although it was the heyday of strawberry production.

We bought a crate of onions by accident. A traveler ahead of us returning to San Antonio saw, in a field near Big Wells, hundreds of crates of onions in the field. He got out, went to the farm house, rustled up a native, bought a crate of fine onions for 50 cents and packed them out of the field to his car. He was loading them when we drove up, so we stopped to enquire and finding out what fine onions they were and the low price, we went to the farm house and again dug up the owner and bought us a crate.

There was no sign to say that onions would be sold; just a lot of onions to rot, because of the market and a tremendous rain the previous day, and hundreds of travelers passing by, each of whom would have bought a crate at least, if there had been an attendant and a sign "Fine Bermuda Onions For Sale, 50 Cents for 50 Pounds." They were fine onions, and there was not a rotton one in the bunch. The same kind of onions that the dealers and hucksters were selling in San Antonio at 4 pounds for 25 cents.

The COUNTY The COLLEGE And CANYON

CHAMBER OF COMERCE

FRED E. WORTHAM, Secretary

If you do not have faith in Canyon and Randall county, you should make other arrangements.

The first visitor to the Palo Duro Canyon Park, who registered from a foreign country was from Scotland. He went, as the tale of all good Scotchmen go, because it was free.

NEW HIGHWAY SIGN

The Chamber of Commerce appreciates the public spiritedness of the Foxworth-Galbraith Lumber Lumber Company for furnishing the splendid sign which has been erected on the north highway attracting the attention of the traveling public to the Palo Duro Park.

All work and material for the sign was donated by the local lumber company. Sid Frazee did the painting. The Chamber of Commerce takes this means of publicly thanking the lumber company.

TEXAS UTILITIES CUTS RATE

The announced reduction by the Texas Utilities Company meaning a saving of several hundreds of dollars annually in Canyon was well received by the Canyon citizens. The money thus saved would have come from the pockets of the taxpayers.

EMPLOYING LOCAL LABOR

An appeal has been made to the city officials, county officials and others in regard to employing local labor in the construction of any and all public works to be constructed in Canyon. The appeal seeks to have all local labor on such work. This is a move that should meet with the approval of every business man in Canyon. Any public work to be done in Canyon and Randall county should be done with the labor available in the county, with all other things equal.

The appeal is only just and right. With a number of citizens of the various trades already unemployed because of no fault of their own and the importation of outside labor to do work here would only tend to make conditions worse. Employment of labor, like other things, should begin at home.

IRRIGATION IN RANDALL

In Randall county lies the most natural layout of a wide irrigation plan of any county in West Texas. It is here that irrigation projects could be opened that would mean almost year round prosperity for Canyon and surrounding territory. Along both the Palo Duro and Tierra Blanca creeks are several thousands of acres of tillable land that with a bit of water at the right time would produce abundantly. The best grade of alfalfa hay grown in any section could be produced here. Small truck could be produced with good profits to the grower.

There appears to be an abundance of underground water along the creek bank on either side of Canyon. With this tapped and pumped onto the fields one of the greatest irrigation sections would be opened. The only thing necessary to determine the extent of such a project would be a few test wells. After these, outside capital might be easily induced to come in and finance the installation of such an irrigation system for several miles along the two creeks.

A CHICK HATCHERY NEEDED

Canyon also needs a good chick hatchery.

The Chamber of Commerce is endeavoring to induce a good poultryman to locate a mammoth chick hatchery in Randall county before next spring. Should such a plant be established it will mean much to the poultry raisers of the county and will induce others to start raising purebred poultry.

FARM PUBLICITY

Randall county is gaining national recognition among the leading farm journals. The Chamber of Commerce has been advised that one of the leading farm publications in the mid-west area is sending one of its specialty writers into this secton to visit the leading farms for farm news for that publication. This writer is making a special trip to Randall county to study a number of projects that have become advertised thru publicity sent out. Such good points about the county, published in a magazine of upwards to a 1,000,000 circulation reaching the best of farmers interested in seeking a new country and a change to a better farming country will benefit Randall County greatly.

MORE PUBLICITY

Holland's magazine will carry a story and picture of the Palo Duro Canyon in an issue in the very near future. The picture and information has been furnished from the office of the Chamber of Commerce secretary.

BETTER BARGAINS THAN BEFORE

Canyon merchants who are returning from the markets where they have been during the past several weeks to purchase merchandise for their fall and winter trade declare that they are going to be able to offer bargains in all lines in Canyon during the next few months that will cope with any prices on quality merchandise in any other section of the country.

Canyon merchants have bought with a forethought for the savings they can offer their customers. Prices in wholesale circles are lower than in a number of years and the savings are being passed on to the purchaser. People will find it to their advantage to do their fall and winter buying in Canyon because it will mean much in savings and keep the money at home where it can be used again to help build the town and county.

SUCCESSFUL COLLEGE TERM

This week marks the close of one of the most if not the most successful summer schools in the history of the West Texas State Teachers College. And it is hoped that the same shall be continued into the fall and winter months.

News in Canyon 25 Years Ago

(From the files of the Canyon City News, Friday, Aug. 24, 1906)

Renshaw and Cochran have the contract to paint the inside of the Court House at $218.

County court is going on this week. There is little in it this term barring railroad damage suits and Amarillo lawyers.

Keiser Bros. & Phillips are expecting two large automobiles in next week for use in their land business. They completed the stables for them this week.

Newt Reeves returning from Hereford Tuesday, reports a livery team runaway, as the result of a scare from an automobile, in which two persons were killed.

Travis Shaw has purchased from John Hutson a section of the Palo Duro joining the Ed Harrell place on the south, at $6,400.

I. L. Hunt has discarded his steel windmill and is having put up a new tower and a wooden wheel.

J. C. Gruikshank's calves, about 65, shipped week before last and put on the Kansas City market Monday, netted him $8.05 each.

Business men from abroad usually gauge the progressiveness of a town by the advertising columns of its local newspaper. If there is little showing there in business lines, they, not improperly conclude that the town from this standpoint at least is not worth considering.

The Plainview Commercial Club according to the News of that place is moving to incorporate the town. Good idea, but don't make the mistake of adopting village instead of city incorporation. Better none at all than the first.

It is without a doubt that the attendance will be large this fall and winter if the price of farm crops should take a sudden rise.

A large number of boys and girls in the Panhandle have staked their hopes for fall college attendance on this year's crop and with the bottom out of prices they are helpless. But should the price rise they would be in a position to attend college.

Randall County Farmers Terrace Land to Conserve Moisture and Soil and to Increase Yield Per Acre

As a part of the moisture and soil conservation program, farmers in Randall county are terracing and contouring several thousand acres of land this summer under the direction of County Agent W. H. Upchurch. As well as a conservation of the soil, farmers from experience during the past two years have found that terracing pays good returns in dry seasons in the form of increased yield per acre when the crops are harvested.

The first terracing of land in the county took place two years ago. The results were so amazing that anumber of farmers terraced land last year and the saving of practically every bit of rain that fell during the year by having the land terraced has convinced others of its merits. They have seen that it is worth while to terrace land even on the level appearing plains.

A case, said to be somewhat out of the ordinary is found in this county. A tenant farmer is terracing his landlord's farm without being paid for the work, and without holding a long time lease.

R. A. Adcock, who holds only a short time lease on the place he farms five miles south east of Canyon is terracing 140 acres as a result of observing some of the increased yields of wheat on land terraced last year. The landlord has agreed to pay for the fuel and oil used in the tenant's tractor and the wages of one helper in building the terraces. The farmer furnishes the tractor and a man to operate it. When figured at the present low price of gasoline the landlord is paying very little in getting his land terraced.

P. H. Baber who lives west of Canyon is terracing an additional acreage this year, as a result of trying it out last year. Mr. Baber estimates that his wheat yield was increased at least 4 bushels per acre on terraced land this summer.

R. B. Gist, who terraced 1920 acres of wheat land last summer is busy widening his terraces so as to get over them better with his heavy wheat harvesting machinery. He is also running additional terraces between the original ones, which were placed with a vertical drop of 18 inches between terraces. This will enable him to hold the rainfall on each 9 inches of drop across the field and will tend to eliminate the great difference in height of wheat caused by terraces this year. Mr. Gist, who raises wheat on a big scale, estimates that his terraces increased his wheat yield 6 to 8 bushels per acre this year.

Many farmers who have row crops on contoured land for the first time this year are outspoken in their praise of this method of moisture saving. Grain sorghum crops planted with listers on level rows this spring are at this time showing up much better than crops on similar land planted in the usual way.

Farmers are learning that stubble land which is deeply listed in the fall with contoured rows, retains enough moisture through the winter to equal summer fallow for row crops the following year. By using the contour method of preparing land in the fall, an additional advantage is to be had. The frosts get into the subsoil in the bottom of the rows and loosens the subsoil, thus retaining the moisture. This method also holds snow that would otherwise blow away. This practice has been recommended by the Randall county agent for several years.

The first terracing was done in this county two years ago. Since that time it has increased steadily. The first year only 400 acres were terraced. Last year 2,700 acres were terraced, and now more than 5,000 acres in the county are under terraces or contoured rows, with a prospect of at least 3,000 more acres being prepared this fall.

Fair Exhibit

annual spring Panhandle-Plains Dairy Show. At the first show four years ago the cow which was Grand Champion of the show and won the milk production contest was from this county. At the show the past spring, another Randall county cow topped the production of all other cows in the contest to win first place. Other Randall cows took a number of the prizes offered.

This county has a herd improvement association that is outstanding in Texas. This association has attracted statewide attention in the short space of the few years in which it has been organized.

Besides showing in the county herd a number of Jersey breeders will go to the Tri-State Fair for the purpose of entering a number of head of purebreds. Practically every class in the Jersey division of the Dairy Cattle Department will see at least one entrant from this county. Among the exhibitors will be C. C. Stewart, Tierra Blanca Jersey Farms, R. H. Hurst, Hunter and Richardson, and J. W. Watson. Other breeders from the county may also enter the show ring.

It is possible that a number of boys and girls may enter calves in the Calf Club division. A number of Boys' Pig Club litters will also be entered in competition with other sections of the Panhandle. A county agricultural exhibit will be at the fair as usual. A number of individual entries in the agricultural department will be from Randall county.

Last year during the Tri-State Fair when the winners of the Amarillo News-Globe Master Dairy Farmers' Contest were announced three of the high ten men were from Randall county. This included the Master Dairy Farmer, J. W. Watson, of the Zita community. The other winners placed in the contest were third and tenth. There are a number of dairy farmers entered in the contest in this county again this year.

Summer School

arillo were named architects for Pioneer Hall, to be erected thru a $25,000 appropriation to be matched by a like amount to be raised locally. The architects have agreed to furnish the plans as a donation to the Panhandle-Plains Historical Society.

The twelve weeks summer session would have been impossible according to President Hill's announcement, had it not been for the sacrifice of members of the faculty. Every member of the staff has worked the last two weeks of the summer without a cent of pay in order that students might not have their credit lessened and that the public schools might not be penalized. The faculty of this college have done this for the past two summers.

With the completion of examinations yesterday, members of college staff have scattered in all directions. Professor L. F. Sheffy will spend a part of his vacation working on the Museum Fund for the Panhandle-Plains Historical Society and he and Mrs. Sheffy and Miss Cleo Holmes will probably go to Colorado for the latter part of the vacation.

Miss Barlow will go to Austin to visit her people. Mr. and Mrs. Batchelder will go to Jackson Hole, Wyoming to enjoy a vacation of fishing and mountain climbing.

Miss Mary Morgan Brown will include Ashville and Raleigh, North Carolina and Birmingham, Alabama in her vacation trip.

Dr. and Mrs. H. M. Cook will go to Baton Rouge, Louisiana and to southern Alabama for the holidays.

Wallace Clark will visit Dallas, Corpus Christi and other south Texas points.

Mr. and Mrs. Stuart Condron have been spending the last half of the summer in Colorado; they are now in Iowa and will return to Canyon about September first.

Miss Ruth Cross will go to Wichita, Kansas, and later will go to New York where she will study during the coming year.

Miss Edna Graham will visit El Paso, San Antonio and other Texas points and Miss Darthula Walker will go to the mountains in New Mexico.

Mrs. Geraldine Green will spend the holiday period in New Mexico.

Miss M. Moss Richardson will visit at Paris and other east Texas points.

Mr. and Mrs. Travis Shaw will spend a few days in northwestern New Mexico, visiting Travis, Jr.

F. E. Savage will remain in Canyon until after the Institute, September 3, 4, and 5 as he is to conduct it.

President J. A. Hill will be in his office much of the time during the vacation. Registrar D. A. Shirley, and Mrs. T. V. Reeves of the Bureau of Public Service will keep their offices open several hours each day until the opening of the fall session. Dean R. P. Jarrett expects to be in his office much of the time.

Miss Mattie Swayne and Miss Ruth Lowes will spend their vacation at Cuchara Camps, near Walsenberg, Colorado.

Miss Mattie Swisher left today with Mrs. Geraldine Green and daughter Nell for a vacation trip to New Mexico.

Miss Leola Hayes who is employed in the Bureau of Public Service at the college will spend her vacation at Portales, New Mexico.

SELECTING TREES

Who has not been impressed with the beauty of the trees in Plainview? Only those who have not seen Plainview.

But we are face to face with a situation which demands much attention to our trees as we gave to them when the tree-planting campaigns of the earlier days were in full blast.

Most of our trees are locusts. Most of the locusts are infested with locust borers. All of them are threatened.

Tree planting time is approaching. In later years we will look back with pleasure on our efforts now, if we busy ourselves individually in setting out trees of hardy varieties.

Ash, box elder, walnut, maple, honey locust, Chinese elm, pecan, apricot, poplars are varieties we should consider.

The ash is a hardy tree on the Plains. It is disease resistant. The box elder is the favorite of many who own them. There's nothing finer than a good walnut, although it is of slow maturity. The Chinese elm, a member of the self-pruning class, is of quick growth, beautiful proportions, and up to now disease-resistant here. Some of them froze last winter, probably due to excessive growth during the fall, and unverified reports of root disease have come from Amarillo. The pecan is of slow growth, but makes a fine tree. The apricot is a tree of value for its fruit as well as shade and is not appreciated here for its full worth. The poplars make a quick growth, are stately and beautiful, are of short life, but are often attacked by leaf worms, making spraying necessary. The honey locust, thorny and seelk-barked, is immune to attacks of the locust borer and has been found to be free from disease here. The maple is the favorite of many people and makes an excellent tree for the Plains. The sycamore is a good tree, but one should look at the sycamore. Count the number of dead sycamores you see.

Each to his own taste in the variety of tree planted. Above all let's keep busy at the task of supplanting our devastated locusts with other good trees.

Let's keep pace with the borers and a little ahead of them.—Plainview News.

A REMINDER

We would like to remind those who have not paid 1930 taxes that they will become delinquent and subject to penalty if not paid by October 15th; 1931 taxes will become due and payable on the first of October; if your 1930 taxes cannot be taken care of before becoming delinquent it is going to work a hardship on the taxpayers in trying to pay two sets of taxes at the same time. The payment of 1930 taxes now will also put our treasury in much better financial condition, and will enable us to operate our schools without serious handicap. We will appreciate your prompt attention to this matter, and will also appreciate the payment of taxes delinquent for several years previous to 1930. Laws have recently been enacted which will force us to take some action to liquidate all delinquent taxes. The payment of such delinquent tax at this time will save money for the schools as well as for those who have et their taxes go unpaid.

Sincerely yours,

BOARD OF TRUSTEES.
